coggle
made for free at coggle.it

Educational Philosophy:

Importance

Why is this important?

- HAPPINESS
  - student is happy with and respected by school and its philosophies
- COOPERATION
  - student can cooperate with their teachers and peers
- EFFICIENCY
  - student is learning effectively and thoroughly

What are the stakes?

- POOR EDUCATION
  - without proper learning structure, students learning is negatively impacted
- UNHAPPINESS
  - student is upset in and outside the classroom
- FORCED TO SWITCH SCHOOLS
  - because of previous two factors, student is forced to change schools and social life is harmed

Stories

Conflicts

- PARENT / GUARDIAN to TEACHER
  - parent / guardian dislikes the way teacher teaches student
- STUDENT to TEACHER
  - student has difficulty with teacher's lesson
- TEACHER to ADMINISTRATOR
  - teacher has problems with overall structure

Characters

- STUDENTS
  - subject to differing philsosphies
- TEACHERS
  - in charge of implementation
- ADMISISTRATORS
  - decide overall structure and hire staff
- PARENTS / GUARDIANS
  - deciding power in selecting the correct school

Perspectives

- SOCIAL
  - humans learn best in group activities
- BEHAVIORISM
  - focus on observable behavior
- COGNITIVE
  - learning as purely a mental/ neurological process
- HUMANISTIC
  - emotions and affect play a role in learning

Change

Ideas for creating change

- PARENTS / GUARDIANS WORK WITH STUDENT TO PICK OUT THE RIGHT SCHOOL BASED ON PHILOSOPHY
  - communication and cooperation is key
- SCHOOLS ARE UPFRONT WITH THEIR TEACHING STYLES AND PHILSOSPHIES
  - involved parties can make and educated decision on what school they go to
- STUDENTS AND PARENTS / GUARDIANS ARE EDUCATED ON EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY
  - involved parties should know which teaching styles are the right fit